About the property

Built in 1952, 72 Winfield Street is a three bedroom, two bathroom single family home with one-car parking. This updated and freshly painted home has abundant natural light, a protected rear garden, refinished hardwood floors, updated kitchen and baths, one car garage, and in-unit laundry.

72 Winfield enjoys the charm of Bernal Heights along with the accessibility of being on the western slope, near commuter options and fabulous Mission Street restaurants bars, markets, and transit.
